

5. Identify potential summarizability problems in your star schema and indicate preferred resolutions of the summarizability problems. For incomplete dimension-fact relationships, you should also indicate if columns in a dimension table allow null values.

Potential summarizability problem are if there isn't information for a location for a job, so it will make the summarizing by location hard.